

Exploring the World Through Labyrinths

MEPI Hands for Peace Conference 2012

Find labyrinths using the resource materials provided to match the descriptions below. Search for locations, dates, classifications, and other interesting information.

Public park	In South Carolina	Made of stone	In a church	Medieval Style
Older than 100 years old	At a historical site	The most unusual one	In a school	Named after an island
That was installed temporarily	In a field	Colorful	One that is tiny	In Hawaii
Roman style	One that you think is beautiful	Engraved in stone	Made for children	In a foreign country
At an amusement park	Constructed of wood	Older than 1,000 years old	In a private setting	For horses

Lasting Labyrinths

Custom designed labyrinths and workshops for environments and experiences that will last a lifetime...

M.E.(Beth) Langley

Kittnzclwz@aol.com

www.LastingLabyrinths.com